

INTERDISCIPLINARY COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE TRAINING (ICP)

The Australian Institute for Relationship Studies (AIRS), the training arm of Relationships Australia NSW, is once again running its highly successful Interdisciplinary Collaborative Practice (ICP) training.

This is a great opportunity to become eligible for Relationships Australia NSW's existing, and potentially expanded, practice group and to register with Collaborative Professionals NSW. MCLE (CPD) units can also be claimed for this activity. Practitioner registration and membership costs are not covered as part of this course.

We are also conducting our very popular Interdisciplinary Collaborative Practice Masterclass for those who have completed the two day training course and others who would like to update their collaborative skills in a supportive environment with highly skilled and experienced professionals.

WHY SHOULD YOU ATTEND THIS COURSE?

- To become a qualified Collaborative professional and to participate in cases external to Relationships Australia NSW practice group
- To be eligible for support from Relationships Australia NSW in establishing your own Practice Group
- To be eligible as a Family Lawyer or Financial Planner to join the existing Relationships Australia NSW Practice Group (subject to vacancies) and /or participate in the expansion of this Practice Group
- To participate in Collaborative Practice cases if you are a Psychologist, Counsellor or Child Consultant
- To be eligible as a lawyer to request coaches or child consultants from Relationships Australia NSW for your own cases external to Relationships Australia NSW Practice group(s)

WHO IS THIS COURSE FOR?

- Lawyers practising Family Law
- Financial Planners
- Psychologists
- Counsellors
- Child Consultants

VISIT AIRS.EDU.AU FOR MORE INFORMATION

BOOKINGS 02 8874 8090

INTERDISCIPLINARY COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE TRAINING (ICP)

TWO DAY COURSE

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- What it takes to become a Collaborative professional
- The paradigm shift from positional to interest based negotiation
- The neurobiology of stress
- Communication in an interdisciplinary context, the nature of conflict and suitability assessment
- Understanding how the lawyer, coach, financial specialist and child consultant work together
- 5-way meetings, overcoming impasses, the value of practice groups

DATES

4 March 2016 (Friday) & 5 March 2016 (Saturday)

MASTERCLASS SKILLS PRACTICE

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Review the aims and objectives of Interdisciplinary Collaborative Practice
- Theory and practice in engaging clients in change
- Theory and practice in interview techniques to develop interests
- Practise first client meetings
- Practise 5-way meetings

DATE

7 May 2016 (Saturday)

FEES

TWO DAY COURSE + MASTERCLASS SKILLS PRACTICE

4-5 March 2016 and 7 May 2016

Early Bird Price $1800. Until 21 Feb 2016

Full Price $2200

TWO DAY COURSE

4-5 March 2016

Early Bird Price $1350. Until 07 Feb 2016

Full Price $1560

MASTERCLASS

7 May 2015

Early Bird Price $600. Until 10 April 2016

Full Price $750

All prices are inclusive of GST.

VENUE

Relationships Australia NSW

Suite 102, Level 1, 68 Waterloo Road Macquarie Park

PARKING AND TRANSPORT

Metered street parking is available around the venue. We are a short walk from Macquarie University train station and buses. Two hour free parking is also available at Macquarie Centre.

VISIT AIRS.EDU.AU FOR MORE INFORMATION

BOOKINGS 02 8874 8090